

RACES FEATURE OF COUNTY FAIR

Crowd of Three Thousand People Present on Big Day of Joslin Show.

RED TIME IN WALK AWAY

Mt. Carrol Trotter Takes Three Straight Heats—Patchen Gentry in Similar Performance.

Conservative estimates place the number in attendance at the Joslin fair yesterday afternoon at between 2,500 and 3,000 people. There were 400 horse-drawn vehicles on the grounds and between 200 and 300 automobiles. Though the crowds began to leave for their homes at 4 p. m. and a steady stream of vehicles poured out of two exits, all had not left the grounds at 6 o'clock.

The majority of candidates seeking nominations by the various political parties at the primaries today were on hand for the fair's big day, though a few "foxy" runners made hay while the others were at play and spent the day at a final canvass in Moline and Rock Island.

The opener on the race program, a 2:34 trot, was won in a walkaway by Red Time, owned by Holliman & Miles, Mt. Carroll, Ill., and driven by J. B. Tomlinson. Lady M., owned by William Ham Sands of Geneseo and driven by Joe Clifford, rallied after the first heat and trotted to second. Kaiserdel was driven by Mike Donnelly of Moline and is the property of Fred M. Reimers of the same city. His performance is considered good because of the fact that he made his initial track appearance yesterday. He is a descendant of Kaiser, the famous horse which was the property of Dr. A. H. Arp and drowned in Rock river several years ago. Ed Weinrich of Geneseo drove Ted Rea, an animal owned by Weinrich Bros., that failed to make a good showing after the first heat.

Pace to Patchen Gentry

The second event, a 2:30 pace, went to Weinrich Bros. Patchen Gentry, in easy style, the animal finishing well in the lead in three straight heats. Ed Weinrich drove the horse, which is a registered colt from the famous Patchen stock.

Alice Ginter, owned by John Munro of Moline and driven by Dr. W. C. Pinkney, repeated the performance of Lady M. in trot, making a bad showing the first heat and winding up with second place in the second and third. N. R. Eddy of Erie, Ill., owner, drove Dean Patchen, capturing third money. Manager, Jr., was driven by Hollis Warren and is owned by R. C. Sill of Watertown. He is considered a phenomenon, owing to the fact that he made a fair showing though he is not out of racing stock. A bad start and pocketing on the curves were what kept him down to fourth money.

Tomorrow, owned and driven by Charles Lovell of Geneseo, proved a disappointment.

Senior Class of 1911 at Rock Island High School Organizes.

The senior class of 1911 held its first meeting of the year last evening after school. The business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year. Leo Stevens was elected president by a plurality of 13 votes over Chester Thompson. Jonty Marshall and Harold Grove. Katherine Heimbeck was elected vice president after the first ballot resulted in a tie between Miss Heimbeck and Jay MacManus. Edna Beemer and Walter Roth were unanimously elected secretary and treasurer, respectively.

It was decided that the class colors, gold and white, which were adopted two years ago, were not the choice of a majority of the class, and accordingly a committee will be appointed at a special meeting tonight to select new colors and report to the class. At the same time a committee will be appointed to audit the books of the class and another to nominate officers for the high school paper.

REV. SEABERG IS GIVEN POST EAST

Central Swedish Methodist Conference Assigns Superintendent to Pastorate.

J. W. SWANSON SUCCESSOR

Latter Has Been in Charge of Church at Galesburg—Next Annual Meeting at Jamestown, N. Y.

A surprise to local friends is the news that, at the annual meeting of the Central Swedish Methodist conference held in Chicago Monday, Rev. C. A. Seaberg, former pastor of the Moline church, was transferred from the office of superintendent of the Swedish Methodist church in Worcester, Mass. The change is a promotion for Mr. Seaberg, as the Worcester pastorate is one of the largest ones in the eastern Swedish conference and presents an excellent opportunity for work.

Change Tentative List. His transfer was a surprise to even the delegates at the conference for the tentative list of changes, prepared Saturday evening, did not provide that Mr. Seaberg should go east. Therefore, Monday morning when the list was announced and the Seaberg change read, there were exclamations of surprise and regret from those who will be sorry to see Mr. Seaberg leave his post in the superintendent's headquarters at Galva.

Rev. J. W. Swanson, who has been named to fill Mr. Seaberg's place has held the pastorate at Galesburg and the place he vacates will be filled by Rev. Theodore Peterson, who comes from Geneva. All these pastors are well known here.

Rev. G. A. Nystrom of Andover was transferred to the congregation at Galva.

Westing to Coast. The decision of the conference was to send Rev. Mr. Westing, who was here five or six years ago, to the Pacific Swedish conference pastorate at Seattle, Wash. Mr. Westing has been at Waukegan.

The next annual central conference will be held at Jamestown, N. Y. Mr. Swanson, new superintendent in this district, will make his first local official visit in about a month.

City Chat

HAUNTED.

The memory of other years
A spell most magical casts o'er me.
The hopes that filled me and the fears
In quick succession pass before me.
So many scenes before me flit,
As long I muse on Times' surprises:
As in deep study here I sit,
A face before my vision rises.

But 'tis no maiden's face—to me
No maid her love gave—more's the pity
Oh, no, this tale is not to be
An ultrasentimental ditty.

That face was one that brightly shone
On a gold eagle a friend borrowed—
He disappeared to parts unknown
And ever since I've wept and sorrowed!
